The ES Cubs got solid pitching from M.Kelly and C.Schulz, who struck out 8 Bulldogs, including the number 4 and 5 hitters with the bases loaded in the 3rd to escape the inning with no runs. D.Koutavas turned in a web gem at first base, snaring what looked like a line drive double off the bat of E.Barr to turn in an unassisted double play. M.Kelly scored 3 runs and C.Poedtke 2 to lead the Cubs' offense. G.Kemper made two solid plays at third base to get the Mets through the top of the Cubs order. G.Bicknell gave us two solid pitching innings and R.Murdach played great at first base with a pulled hamstring. GAME NOTES: The Skokie Bulldogs are a class team. We started the game with only eight players and they fielded a ninth player for us for half of the first inning. They made some great fielding plays: a double play and two throw-outs at home plate. We all froze out there but it was great baseball. — T.Nuzzo, ES Mets Mgr.

PITCHERS USED (INNINGS PITCHED): J.Fuller (4), T.Dixon (2), B.Oatt (1)
GAME NOTES: This was a very tight game and both teams battled to the end with the SI Bulldogs putting the tying runs on base in the 7th. The ES Cubs got solid pitching from M.Kelly and C.Schulz, who struck out 8 Bulldogs, including the number 4 and 5 hitters with the bases loaded in the 3rd to escape the inning with no runs. D.Koutavas turned in a web gem at first base, snaring what looked like a line drive double off the bat of E.Barr to turn in an unassisted double play. M.Kelly scored 3 runs and C.Poedtke 2 to lead the Cubs' offense. For the Bulldogs, T.Dixon blasted a long 2 run home run to start the scoring and B.Oatt started the 7th inning rally with a triple to right center. — M.Grant, ES Cubs Mgr.

GAME NOTES: This was a very well played game that was fun to watch and be involved in; both teams should feel good about their efforts. For the ES Cubs, C.Schulz threw 4 strong shutout innings- allowing only a few base runners, 1 of whom was caught stealing. On offense A.Hague was 3-for-4 including a long triple and scored one run. Schulz, M.Kelly and K.Kelly each scored twice. The SI Bulldogs fought hard the entire game and scored 6 runs in the final two innings to keep the pressure on. In the top of the 6th with 4 runs already in and the bases loaded, the Cubs' D.Grant snared a hard hit ball to start a 3-2 double play to end the Bulldogs' biggest rally.
