

2011 NSYBA SPRING SEASON SCHEDULE

REVISED: Monday, June 6, 2:45 PM

HOW TO READ THIS SCHEDULE:

1. Team abbreviations are two- or three-letter/number abbreviations. You'll find the key toward the bottom left of each page.
2. You can get the exact location plus mapquest and google directions to diamonds on the www.nsyba.org website. Click on the "ballpark maps" link on the green "navigation" bar.
3. The first column gives you the diamond abbreviation and the abbreviation of the league which calls it home.
5. The first pitch times in the second column refer to MONDAY through FRIDAY only and are frequently different from weekend first pitch times.
6. The first pitch times in the eighth column refer to SATURDAY only and are frequently different from first pitch times for other days.
4. The first pitch times in the tenth column refer to SUNDAY only and are frequently different from the first pitch times for other days.
7. Shaded game slots are unavailable to NSYBA; the unshaded game slots are available.

2011 SPRING SCHEDULE NOTES:

1. Visitors take the first base dugout and bat first. Home takes the third base dugout, prepares the diamond, provides game balls & umpire, and bats last.
2. Single games run seven innings; double-headers are five innings each, unless agreed to otherwise by all managers. (A double-header is the same team playing twice on the same day on the same diamond.)
3. NSYBA is divided into two divisions, National and American. Every team plays 14 games, 7 away and 7 home.

NATIONAL DIVISION (Evanston 1, Evanston 3, Lincolnwood 1, Skokie Indians 1 and Skokie Indians 3):

Every National Division team plays the other National Division teams twice, home and away. Every National Division team also plays two extra games within the National Division. Finally, every National Division team plays every American Division team once.

AMERICAN DIVISION (Evanston 2, Evanston 4, Lincolnwood 2, Skokie Indians 2):

Every American Division team plays the other American Division teams twice, home and away. Every American Division team also plays three extra games within the American Division. Finally, every American Division team plays every National Division team once.
